

NORTHWEST SCHOOL
OF ANIMAL MASSAGE

Fast Facts

- Founded: 2001
- Snapshot: The Northwest School of Animal Massage (NWSAM) offers certification courses in animal massage and workshops on related pet health and wellness topics such as animal communication and aromatherapy.
- Curriculum: To meet demand from students throughout North America, Canada, Europe, and Asia, the Northwest School of Animal Massage developed a comprehensive multi-level course curriculum that can be completed through a hybrid program including online distance learning and an intensive hands-on training practicum taught by industry professionals.
- Workshops: In June 2008, NWSAM introduced a series of Weekend Workshops for pet and animal owners that wish to learn new techniques for caring for their animals. The series of four workshops includes The FUNdamentals of Animal Massage, Reiki for Animals, Animal Communication, and Introduction to Aromatherapy. These workshops are open to all animal enthusiasts.
- Leadership: Lola Michelin, Director of Education
- Number of Students: Over 1000 graduates from all over the globe
- Website: www.nwsam.com
- Location: Seattle, Washington